NOTES TO UNAUDITED INTERIM CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE 1 – BUSINESS AND BASIS OF PRESENTATION

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying unaudited interim consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("US GAAP") and the rules of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"). In the opinion of management, all adjustments (consisting only of normal recurring adjustments) considered necessary for a fair statement of the results for interim periods have been included. Certain prior period amounts have been reclassified to conform to current-year presentation. Results for interim periods should not be considered indicative of results for a full year. These financial statements and related notes contain the accounts of DENTSPLY SIRONA Inc. and subsidiaries ("Dentsply Sirona" or the "Company") on a consolidated basis and should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and notes included in the Company's most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2025, filed with the SEC on February 26, 2026 (the "2025 Form 10-K"). All significant intercompany accounts and transactions are eliminated in consolidation.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with US GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities as of the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expense during the reporting period. Actual results could differ materially from those estimates.

The Company revised its methodology utilized to determine profit in intercompany inventory for elimination, resulting in increased net income by approximately $30 million, equivalent to $0.15 per basic and diluted share for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2026. The revised methodology utilizes information that was not previously readily available and can now be captured using the new system that the Company is implementing to consolidate its financial results. In connection with this implementation, the Company is enhancing the extent of detailed financial data readily and systematically available, improving the Company's ability to analyze and estimate the unrealized profit in inventory associated with intercompany transactions. The change was accounted for prospectively as a change in accounting estimate and represents the cumulative impact of the revised estimate. Equivalent impacts are not expected in future periods.

Accounting Pronouncements Not Yet Adopted

In November 2024, the FASB issued ASU No. 2024-03, "Income Statement—Reporting Comprehensive Income—Expense Disaggregation Disclosures (Subtopic 220-40) Disaggregation of Income Statement Expenses," which requires disaggregated disclosure of income statement expenses for public business entities ("PBEs"). In January 2025, the FASB issued ASU No. 2025-01 "Income Statement—Reporting Comprehensive Income—Expense Disaggregation Disclosures (Subtopic 220-40)," which clarified the effective date for ASU No. 2024-03. These amendments are intended to provide more information about types of expenses in commonly presented expense captions. The amendments in this update are effective for annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2026, and interim reporting periods within fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2027, and early adoption is permitted. The Company is currently undertaking implementation activities in preparation for adopting the guidance at the required effective dates. Adoption will result in additional disclosures but will not impact the Company's results of operations, financial position, or cash flows.

In September 2025, the FASB issued ASU No. 2025-06, "Intangibles - Goodwill and Other - Internal-Use Software (Subtopic 350-40)," which amends certain aspects of ASC 350-40 related to the accounting and disclosure of internally developed software costs. This amendment is intended to provide further guidance on how to evaluate whether the probable-to-complete recognition threshold has been met to capitalize costs for internal-use software. The amendments in this update are effective for annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2027, including interim reporting periods within those annual reporting periods. Early adoption is permitted in an interim or annual reporting period for which financial statements have not been issued or made available for issuance. Entities may apply the guidance prospectively, retrospectively, or via a modified prospective transition method. The Company is currently evaluating the impact on its consolidated financial statements and related disclosures, as well as the method of adoption.

In September 2025, the FASB issued ASU No. 2025-07, “Derivatives and Hedging (Topic 815) and Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606),” which refines the scope of the guidance on derivatives in ASC 815 and clarifies the guidance on share-based payments from a customer in ASC 606. The amendments in this update are effective for annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2026, including interim reporting periods within those annual reporting periods. Early adoption is permitted in an interim or annual reporting period for which financial statements have not been issued or made available for issuance. Entities may apply the guidance prospectively or on a modified retrospective basis. As of September 30, 2026, the Company is not party to any arrangements that fall within the scope of this ASU. Accordingly, adoption of the ASU is not expected to have an impact on the Company’s consolidated financial statements or related disclosures at this time. The Company will continue to monitor its arrangements for applicability of the ASU in future periods.

In November 2025, the FASB issued ASU No. 2025-09, “Derivatives and Hedging (Topic 815),” which amends certain aspects of the hedge accounting guidance in ASC 815. The amendments are intended to more closely align hedge accounting with the economics of an entity’s risk management activities. The amendments in this update are effective for annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2026, including interim reporting periods within those annual reporting periods. Early adoption is permitted in any interim or annual period after the ASU’s issuance. Entities should apply the guidance prospectively. As of September 30, 2026, the Company is not party to any arrangements that fall within the scope of this ASU. Accordingly, adoption of the ASU is not expected to have an impact on the Company’s consolidated financial statements or related disclosures at this time. The Company will continue to monitor its arrangements for applicability of the ASU in future periods.

Seasonality

The Company’s business is subject to quarterly fluctuations in demand due to seasonality, which can impact the timing of the Company’s consolidated net sales, net income, and cash flows. Demand can fluctuate based on the timing of dental trade shows and variability in dental patient traffic, which can be exacerbated by seasonal or severe weather patterns. Some dental practices in certain countries may also delay purchasing equipment and restocking consumable products until year-end due to income tax benefits or for other financial planning reasons. In addition, the timing of holidays and vacations, particularly throughout Europe, may shift demand across quarters. Sales for the industry and the Company are generally stronger in the second and fourth quarters and weaker in the first and third quarters, due to the effects of the items noted above. Because of the seasonal nature of the Company’s business, the results of operations for any fiscal quarter will not necessarily be indicative of results to be expected for other quarters or a full fiscal year.

NOTE 2 - REVENUE RECOGNITION

Revenues are derived primarily from the sale of dental equipment and dental and healthcare consumable products. Revenues are measured as the amount of consideration the Company expects to receive in exchange for transferring goods or providing services.

Net sales disaggregated by product category were as follows:

(in millions)	Three Months Ended September 30, 2026	Three Months Ended September 30, 2025	Nine Months Ended September 30, 2026	Nine Months Ended September 30, 2025

The Company's geographic regions for reporting net sales consist of countries in (i) North and South America ("Americas"), (ii) Europe, the Middle East, and Africa ("EMEA"), and (iii) Asia Pacific ("APAC"). Effective January 1, 2026, the Company changed its geographic regions for reporting net sales to align with how it manages commercial activities and reports net sales internally. Prior period net sales amounts have been recast to conform to the current period presentation. This change did not impact the Company's consolidated financial statements.

Net sales disaggregated by geographic region were as follows:

Contract Assets and Liabilities

The Company does not typically have contract assets in the course of its business. Contract liabilities, which represent billings in excess of revenue recognized, are primarily related to deferred revenue associated with advanced billings for customer orthodontic treatments where the performance obligation has not yet been satisfied. The Company recorded deferred revenue of $69 million and $30 million in Accrued liabilities and Other noncurrent liabilities, respectively, in the Consolidated Balance Sheets at September 30, 2026. In the three months ended September 30, 2026, there was a reversal of previously booked expenses for the 2026 Plan as severance costs were lower than the Company's initial estimates.

With the 2026 Plan, the Company seeks to improve operational performance and drive stockholder value creation. As of September 30, 2026, the Company has incurred $54 million in non-recurring restructuring charges under the 2026 Plan, primarily related to severance payments, employee benefits, and employee transition. In total, the Company expects to incur non-recurring charges in the approximate range of $60 million to $65 million related to the 2026 Plan, the majority of which will be expensed and paid in cash in 2026 and 2027.

The liabilities associated with the Company's restructuring plans are recorded in Accrued liabilities and Other noncurrent liabilities in the Consolidated Balance Sheets. Activity in the Company's restructuring accruals at September 30, 2026 was as follows:

NOTE 9 – FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS AND DERIVATIVES

Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities

The Company's activities expose it to a variety of market risks, which primarily include the risks related to the effects of changes in foreign currency exchange rates and interest rates. These financial exposures are monitored and managed by the Company as part of its overall risk management program. The objective of this risk management program is to reduce the volatility that these market risks may have on the Company's operating results and cash flows. The Company employs derivative financial instruments to hedge certain anticipated transactions, firm commitments, or assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies. Additionally, the Company utilizes interest rate swaps to convert fixed rate debt into variable rate debt or vice versa. The Company does not hold derivative instruments for trading or speculative purposes.

The following summarizes the notional amounts of hedges of net investments, fair value hedges, and derivative instruments not designated as hedges for accounting purposes by derivative instrument type at September 30, 2026 and the notional amounts expected to mature during the next 12 months.

(in millions)	Aggregate Notional Amount	Aggregate Notional Amount Maturing within 12 Months
Hedges of Net Investments

Cross currency basis swaps	1,402	—
Total derivative instruments designated as hedges of net investments	$ 2,143	$ 262

Hedges of Net Investments in Foreign Operations

The Company has significant investments in foreign subsidiaries. The net assets of these subsidiaries are exposed to volatility in foreign currency exchange rates. The Company employs both derivative and non-derivative financial instruments to hedge a portion of these exposures. The derivative instruments consist of foreign exchange forward contracts and cross-currency basis swaps. The non-derivative instruments consist of foreign currency-denominated debt held at the parent company level. Translation gains and losses related to the net assets of the foreign subsidiaries are offset by gains and losses in the aforementioned instruments, which are designated as hedges of net investments, and the intrinsic value changes in these instruments are recorded in AOCI, net of tax effects. The time value component of the derivative instrument's fair value is amortized on a straight-line basis and recognized in Other (income) expense, net in the Consolidated Statements of Operations over the term of the hedge. Cash flows associated with these instruments are generally presented within investing activities in the Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows. However, cash flows attributable to other-than-insignificant financing elements are presented within financing activities.

The fair value of the foreign currency exchange forward contracts and cross-currency basis swaps is the estimated amount the Company would receive or pay at the reporting date, taking into account the effective interest rates and foreign exchange rates. The effective portion of the change in the value of these derivatives is recorded in AOCI, net of tax effects.

In January 2026, the Company settled Swiss franc foreign exchange forward contracts designated as net investment hedges with an aggregate notional amount of 100 million Swiss francs, resulting in a net cash payment of approximately $7 million. The effective portion of the hedge was recognized in AOCI. The Company subsequently entered into Swiss franc foreign exchange forward contracts with an aggregate notional amount of 200 million Swiss francs that are designated as net investment hedges and mature through October 2029. These contracts include excluded components, primarily forward points, for which gains and losses are recognized in earnings as incurred and presented within the operating activities section of the Consolidated Statement of Cash Flows.

In October 2026, the Company settled and re-established its Swiss franc-denominated net investment hedge portfolio. See Note 15, Subsequent Events, for additional information.

Derivative Instruments Not Designated as Hedges

The Company enters into derivative instruments with the intent to partially mitigate the foreign exchange revaluation risk associated with recorded assets and liabilities that are denominated in a non-functional currency. The Company primarily uses foreign exchange forward contracts to hedge these risks. The gains and losses on these derivative transactions offset the gains and losses generated by the revaluation of the underlying non-functional currency balances and are recorded in Other income, net in the Consolidated Statements of Operations. Any cash flows associated with these instruments are included in operating activities in the Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows.

Balance Sheet Offsetting

Substantially all of the Company's derivative contracts are subject to netting arrangements, whereby the right to offset occurs in the event of default or termination in accordance with the terms of the arrangements with the counterparty. While these contracts contain the enforceable right to offset through netting arrangements with the same counterparty, the Company elects to present them on a gross basis in the Consolidated Balance Sheets.

Offsetting of financial assets and liabilities under netting arrangements at September 30, 2026 was as follows:

NOTE 10 – FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENT

The estimated fair and carrying values of the Company's total debt were $2,100 million and $2,200 million, respectively, at September 30, 2026. At December 31, 2025, the estimated fair and carrying values were $2,217 million and $2,329 million, respectively. The fair value of long-term debt is determined by discounting future cash flows using interest rates available at September 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025 and interest rates for companies with similar credit ratings for issuances with similar terms and maturities. It is considered a Level 2 fair value measurement for disclosure purposes.

Assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis

The Company's financial assets and liabilities set forth by level within the fair value hierarchy that were accounted for at fair value on a recurring basis were as follows:

	September 30, 2026

Derivative valuations are based on observable inputs to the valuation model including interest rates, foreign currency exchange rates, and credit risks.

There were no transfers between fair value measurement levels during the nine months ended September 30, 2026.

NOTE 11 – INCOME TAXES

The effective tax rates for the three months ended September 30, 2026 and 2025 were 112.4% and (86.5%), respectively. The effective tax rates for the nine months ended September 30, 2026 and 2025 were 58.3% and (33.6%), respectively. The increase in the effective tax rate is primarily driven by prior-year impairments, which were recorded in the three and nine months ended September 30, 2025, along with associated changes in valuation allowances.

NOTE 12 – FINANCING ARRANGEMENTS

The Company has a five-year senior unsecured multi-currency revolving facility, for an aggregate principal amount of $700 million, that expires on May 12, 2028. The Company also has a $700 million commercial paper program. The $700 million multi-currency revolving credit facility serves as a back-up to the commercial paper facility, resulting in an aggregate of $700 million as the total available credit under the commercial paper facility and the multi-currency revolving credit facility. The Company had $215 million in outstanding borrowings under the commercial paper facility at September 30, 2026 and $82 million in outstanding borrowings under the commercial paper facility at December 31, 2025, and the Company had no outstanding borrowings under the multi-currency revolving credit facility at September 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025. The Company also has access to $18 million in uncommitted short-term financing available under lines of credit from various financial institutions, which is reduced by other outstanding short-term borrowings of less than $1 million.

At September 30, 2026, the weighted-average interest rate for short-term debt was 4.6%.

At September 30, 2026, the Company had $503 million of borrowings available under lines of credit, including lines available under its short-term arrangements and revolving credit facility.

In February 2026, the Company repaid in full €26 million aggregate principal amount of its 2.1% private placement notes upon their scheduled maturity. The repayment was funded with available cash. No amounts were outstanding under these notes at September 30, 2026. The repayment is reflected in cash flows used in financing activities for the nine months ended September 30, 2026.

In August 2026, the Company repaid in full CHF 58 million aggregate principal amount of its 1.0% private placement notes and €106 million aggregate principal amount of its 2.3% private placement notes upon their scheduled maturities. The repayments were funded through the issuance of commercial paper under the Company's commercial paper program. No amounts were outstanding under these notes at September 30, 2026. The repayments are reflected in cash flows used in financing activities for the nine months ended September 30, 2026.

The Company's private placement notes and revolving credit facility contain financial covenants, including maximum Total Leverage Ratio and maximum Senior Leverage Ratio requirements. At September 30, 2026, the Company was in compliance with all of its covenants, as of the prior amendment and as amended in October 2026 as described below.

On October 8, 2026, the Company obtained the requisite lender consents and entered into amendments, each dated as of September 30, 2026, to its May 12, 2023 revolving credit facility and its 2015, 2016 and 2019 note purchase agreements (collectively, the "Debt Amendments"). The Debt Amendments, among other things, increased the maximum permitted leverage ratios and permitted additional EBITDA adjustments for certain cash charges and expenses for the fiscal quarters ending September 30, 2026 and December 31, 2026. The Debt Amendments also temporarily restricted the incurrence of certain new liens and subsidiary debt and the making of certain restricted payments, subject to specified exceptions; added quarterly reporting requirements relating to certain initiatives and the related costs and savings; modified pricing under the revolving credit facility; and increased the incremental interest payable under the note purchase arrangements at specified leverage levels. The Company incurred approximately $4 million in fees in connection with the Debt Amendments. The revised terms provide the Company with additional flexibility to maintain compliance with its debt covenants.

Interest expense, net includes interest income of $2 million and $3 million for the three months ended September 30, 2026 and 2025, respectively. Interest expense, net includes interest income of $8 million and $10 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2026 and 2025, respectively. Interest income primarily relates to interest-bearing cash and cash equivalents, and for the nine months ended September 30, 2026, includes approximately $2 million worth of interest associated with tariff refunds.

NOTE 13 – GOODWILL AND INTANGIBLE ASSETS

The Company's policy is to assess goodwill and indefinite-lived intangible assets for impairment annually as of April 1, with more frequent assessments if events or changes in circumstances indicate a given asset might be impaired. For the April 1, 2026 annual goodwill impairment assessment, the Company performed a qualitative assessment for Essential Dental Solutions and Wellspect Healthcare, the two reporting units with goodwill balances. Based on the totality of the factors considered, the Company concluded that the fair value of each reporting unit was expected to exceed its carrying amount and no goodwill impairment charges were recognized.

Indefinite-lived intangible assets were assessed either through a computation of fair value using an income approach, specifically a relief from royalty method for acquired trade names and trademarks, or through a qualitative assessment for in-process research and development ("R&D"). The Company's significant assumptions in the relief from royalty method include, but were not limited to, discount rates (ranging from 12% to 16%), revenue growth rates (including perpetual growth rates) and royalty rates, all of which were determined using the judgment of management. These assumptions for indefinite-lived intangible asset tests were developed in consideration of current market conditions and future expectations which include, but are not limited to, impact from competition and new product developments. Based on these assessments, the Company concluded that the fair values of its indefinite-lived intangible assets exceeded their respective carrying values, and therefore no impairment charges were recognized as a result of the annual impairment testing performed as of April 1, 2026.

For the three months ended September 30, 2026, the Company considered additional qualitative and quantitative factors to determine whether events or changes in circumstances indicated potential impairment of goodwill or indefinite-lived intangible assets. Based on this assessment, the Company concluded that no interim quantitative goodwill impairment testing was required for the reporting units with remaining goodwill. Due to lower-than-expected results and reduced revenue forecasts for certain product lines, the Company identified indicators of impairment for certain indefinite-lived intangible assets. Quantitative impairment testing performed as of September 30, 2026, using the relief-from-royalty method consistent with the annual impairment assessment, indicated that the carrying values of certain trade names exceeded their estimated fair values. As a result, the Company recorded indefinite-lived intangible asset pre-tax impairment charges of $2 million and $1 million for the Orthodontic and Implant Solutions and Essential Dental Solutions segments, respectively, for the three months ended September 30, 2026.

There is a risk of future impairment charges if there is a decline in the fair value of the reporting units or indefinite-lived intangible assets as a result of, among other things, actual financial results that are lower than forecasts, an adverse change in valuation assumptions, a decline in equity valuations, increases in interest rates, or changes in the use of intangible assets. There can be no assurance that the Company's future asset impairment testing will not result in a material charge to earnings.

A reconciliation of changes in the Company's goodwill by reportable segment is as follows:

During the second quarter of 2026, following updates to the Company's technology strategy made during the quarter, management reassessed the remaining useful life of the developed technology intangible asset associated with the Byte acquisition. Based on the expected migration of certain functionality to the DS Core platform, management concluded that the remaining period over which the asset is expected to provide economic benefit had shortened. Accordingly, the Company revised the asset's remaining useful life, and its remaining carrying value is being amortized through February 2028. The revision was accounted for prospectively as a change in accounting estimate. The change increased amortization expense by approximately $15 million and $29 million for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2026, respectively.

NOTE 14 – CONTINGENCIES AND COMMITMENTS

Contingencies

2022 Securities Class Action

On June 2, 2022, the Company was named as a defendant in a putative class action filed in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Ohio captioned City of Miami General Employees' & Sanitation Employees' Retirement Trust v. Casey, Jr. et al., No. 2:22-cv-02371, and on July 28, 2022, the Company was named as a defendant in a putative class action filed in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York (the "SDNY Court") captioned San Antonio Fire and Police Pension Fund v. Dentsply Sirona Inc. et al., No. 1:22-cv-06339 (together, the "2022 Securities Litigation"). The complaints in the 2022 Securities Litigation are substantially similar and both allege that, during the period from June 9, 2021 through May 9, 2022, the Company, Mr. Donald M. Casey Jr., the Company's former Chief Executive Officer, and Mr. Jorge Gomez, the Company's former Chief Financial Officer, violated U.S. securities laws by, among other things, making materially false and misleading statements or omissions, including regarding the manner in which the Company recognized revenue tied to distributor rebate and incentive programs. On March 27, 2023, the Court in the Southern District of Ohio ordered the transfer of the putative class action to the SDNY Court. On June 1, 2023, the SDNY Court consolidated the two separate actions under case No. 1:22-cv-06339 and appointed as lead plaintiffs for the putative class the City of Birmingham Retirement and Relief System, the El Paso Firemen & Policemen's Pension Fund, and the Wayne County Employees' Retirement System (collectively, the "Lead Plaintiffs"). Lead Plaintiffs filed an amended class action complaint on July 28, 2023 (the "Amended Complaint"). In addition to asserting the same claims against the Company, Mr. Casey, and Mr. Gomez, the Amended Complaint added the Company's former Chief Accounting Officer, Mr. Ranjit S. Chadha, as a defendant (collectively, "Defendants"). On October 10, 2023, Defendants filed a motion to dismiss the Amended Complaint. Lead Plaintiffs opposed the motion. On May 1, 2024, the SDNY Court granted the motion to dismiss as to Mr. Chadha and granted in part and denied in part the motion to dismiss as to the Company, Mr. Casey, and Mr. Gomez. The Company's answer to the Amended Complaint was filed on May 21, 2024. On November 15, 2024, Lead Plaintiffs filed a motion to certify the matter as a class action, to appoint Lead Plaintiffs as class representatives, and to appoint class counsel. Defendants opposed the motion. On July 10, 2025, the SDNY Court granted Lead Plaintiffs' motion for class certification, appointed the Lead Plaintiffs as class representatives, and appointed counsel for Lead Plaintiffs as class counsel. On November 3, 2025, Defendants and Lead Plaintiffs cross-moved for partial summary judgment. On September 4, 2026, the SDNY Court granted in part and denied in part Defendants' motion for partial summary judgment and denied in its entirety Lead Plaintiffs' motion for partial summary judgment. The Company has recorded a liability in an immaterial amount as of September 30, 2026, with an offsetting insurance receivable, resulting in no impact to the Consolidated Statements of Operations in the three and nine months ended September 30, 2026.

2023-2024 Derivative Litigation

Separately, on July 13, 2023, Company stockholder George Presura filed a stockholder derivative suit in the Delaware Court of Chancery captioned George Presura, Derivatively on Behalf of Nominal Defendant Dentsply Sirona Inc. v. Donald M. Casey Jr. et al. and Dentsply Sirona, Inc., No. 2023-0708-NAC (the "Presura Derivative Litigation"). The complaint, filed derivatively on behalf of the Company, asserts claims against current and former members of the Company's Board of Directors and current and former executive officers, including Messrs. Casey and Gomez. The derivative complaint in this case contains allegations similar to those in the 2022 Securities Litigation, and it alleges that during the period from June 9, 2021 through July 13, 2023, various of the defendants breached fiduciary duties, committed corporate waste, and misappropriated information to conduct insider trading by making materially false and misleading statements or omissions regarding the Company's recognition of revenue tied to distributor rebate and incentive programs and distributor inventory levels. On August 4, 2023, the Delaware Court of Chancery stayed the Presura Derivative Litigation until the earlier of public announcement of a settlement of the 2022 Securities Litigation or resolution of the pending motion to dismiss in the 2022 Securities Litigation.

Additionally, on March 26, 2024, Company stockholder Calvin Snee filed a stockholder derivative suit in the Delaware Court of Chancery captioned Calvin Snee, derivatively on behalf of Dentsply Sirona Inc. v. Donald M. Casey Jr., et al. and Dentsply Sirona Inc, No. 2024-0308 (the "Snee Derivative Litigation"). The complaint, filed derivatively on behalf of the Company, asserts claims against current and former members of the Company's Board of Directors and current and former executive officers, including Messrs. Casey and Gomez. The derivative complaint in this case contains allegations similar to those in the Presura Derivative Litigation and the 2022 Securities Litigation, and it alleges that beginning in 2021, various of the defendants breached fiduciary duties, misappropriated information to conduct insider trading, and were unjustly enriched by making materially false and misleading statements or omissions regarding the Company's recognition of revenue tied to distributor rebate and incentive programs and distributor inventory levels.

On May 2, 2024, the Delaware Court of Chancery issued an order consolidating and staying the Presura Derivative Litigation and Snee Derivative Litigation.

On July 19, 2024, Company stockholder Frank Manfre filed a stockholder derivative suit in the Delaware Court of Chancery captioned Frank Manfre, derivatively on behalf of nominal defendant Dentsply Sirona Inc. v. Donald M. Casey Jr. et al. and Dentsply Sirona Inc., No. 2024-0763 (the "Manfre Derivative Litigation"). The complaint asserts claims against current and former members of the Company's Board of Directors and current and former executive officers, including Messrs. Casey and Gomez. The complaint in this case contains allegations similar to those in the Presura Derivative Litigation, the Snee Derivative Litigation, and the 2022 Securities Litigation, and it alleges that beginning in 2021, various of the defendants breached fiduciary duties, misappropriated information to conduct insider trading, and were unjustly enriched by making materially false and misleading statements or omissions regarding the Company's recognition of revenue tied to distributor rebate and incentive programs and distributor inventory levels.

On September 19, 2024, the Delaware Court of Chancery issued an order consolidating and staying the Presura Derivative Litigation, Snee Derivative Litigation, and Manfre Derivative Litigation.

On September 24, 2026, the Delaware Court of Chancery issued an order extending the stay of the Presura Derivative Litigation, Snee Derivative Litigation, and Manfre Derivative Litigation.

2024 Securities Class Action

In November and December 2024, three putative securities class actions were filed against the Company and certain of its then-current and former officers in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York (the "SDNY Court"). On February 21, 2025, the SDNY Court consolidated the three cases under the caption In re Dentsply Sirona, Inc. Securities Litigation, No. 24-cv-9083 (the "2024 Securities Litigation"). The amended complaint filed May 9, 2025 covers a class period from January 4, 2021 through February 26, 2025 and alleges that the defendants violated U.S. securities laws by, among other things, making materially false and misleading statements or omissions, including about the performance of the Company's Byte aligners business after the Company acquired Byte LLC in December 2020. On January 16, 2026, the SDNY Court granted the motion to dismiss as to Mr. Gomez and granted in part and denied in part the motions to dismiss as to the Company and all other defendants. On April 7, 2026, the Company and most of the remaining individual defendants answered the amended complaint. Thereafter, the parties took part in fact discovery.

On October 20, 2026, after engaging in mediation, the Company and the individual defendants entered into a Memorandum of Understanding (the "MOU") with plaintiffs containing the material terms of a settlement resolving the 2024 Securities Litigation. The parties intend to negotiate and execute a formal stipulation of settlement describing the terms of the proposed settlement, which will be subject to approval by the SDNY Court and notice to the class. The MOU provides that the Company will pay or cause its insurers to pay $75 million to settle the 2024 Securities Litigation and that the final settlement will contain no admission of liability, fault, or wrongdoing. This amount will be funded by the Company's insurers under its directors' and officers' liability insurance policies. For the proposed settlement of the 2024 Securities Litigation, the Company has recognized a liability of $75 million as of September 30, 2026, with an offsetting insurance receivable, resulting in no impact to the Consolidated Statements of Operations in the three and nine months ended September 30, 2026.

The defendants agreed to the proposed settlement solely to avoid the cost, distraction, and uncertainty of continued litigation. There can be no assurance that the parties will execute a definitive stipulation of settlement or that the SDNY Court will approve the proposed settlement. If the proposed settlement does not become effective, the Company intends to continue to vigorously defend the 2024 Securities Litigation.

2025-2026 Derivative Litigation

Between March 2025 and September 2026, Company stockholders filed four stockholder derivative suits (the "Derivative Matters") on behalf of the Company. The defendants are certain current and former members of the Company's Board of Directors and certain current and former executive officers. The suits are:

- O'Connor v. Campion, et al., No. 1:25-cv-02246, in the SDNY Court;
- Andreotti v. Campion, et al., No. 1:25-cv-02931, in the SDNY Court;
- Davis v. Campion, et al., No. 1:26-cv-07882, in the SDNY Court; and
- Chua v. Campion, et al., No. 3:26-cv-00148, in the U.S. District Court for the Western District of North Carolina.

On April 29, 2025, the SDNY Court consolidated the O'Connor and Andreotti actions under the caption In re Dentsply Sirona Inc. Stockholder Derivative Litigation (the "Consolidated Derivative Action"). On October 1, 2026, the SDNY Court consolidated the Davis action into the Consolidated Derivative Action. The Derivative Matters are currently stayed.

The derivative complaints make allegations similar to those in the 2024 Securities Litigation, generally covering a period beginning December 1, 2022. They claim that the defendants breached fiduciary duties by, among other things, causing or allowing the Company to make materially false and misleading statements related to the Byte LLC acquisition. Certain of the complaints also assert unjust enrichment and violations of federal securities laws, including in connection with the Company's repurchases of its stock at allegedly inflated prices.

Gobbetti Matter

On March 21, 2023, Mr. Carlo Gobbetti filed a claim in the Milan Chamber of Arbitration against Dentsply Sirona Italia S.r.l. ("DSI"), Italy, a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, seeking a total of €28 million for the alleged failure to pay a portion of the purchase price pursuant to a Share Purchase Agreement, dated October 8, 2012 (the "SPA"), in which Sirona Dental Systems, S.r.l., which at the time of execution of the SPA was a wholly-owned subsidiary of Sirona Dental Systems, Inc., acquired all of the shares of MHT S.p.A., an Italian corporation, from Mr. Gobbetti, and various other sellers. Sirona Dental Systems S.r.l. merged into Dentsply Italia S.r.l. in 2018 (the surviving entity is now DSI). Under the SPA, a portion of the purchase price equal to €7 million was required to be deposited into an escrow account (the "Escrow Account") and released to Mr. Gobbetti and the other sellers upon the satisfaction of certain conditions, including the delivery by July 2013 of a new prototype of an MHT S.p.A. camera which had to meet certain specifications. In connection with the closing of the share purchase transaction, the SPA was supplemented by a Facility Agreement, also dated October 8, 2012 (the "FA"), which specifically set out the mechanics of payment and release of the proceeds of the Escrow Account. The Austrian notary public, Mr. Gottfried Schachinger, acting as escrow agent, Mr. Gobbetti, and SIRONA Holdings GmbH, an affiliate of Sirona Dental Systems, Inc. which paid the €7 million into the Escrow Account, were parties to the FA. The FA is subject to Austrian law and to the jurisdiction of the Court of Salzburg in Austria.

Mr. Gobbetti claims that he is entitled to receive the €7 million outstanding balance of the purchase price under the SPA, plus €21 million for damages incurred as a consequence of the failure to make the payment. Mr. Gobbetti claims that he has a right to receive the full purchase price under the SPA even if the conditions set out in the SPA to deliver a prototype of the MHT S.p.A. camera by July 2013 were not met. On May 15, 2023, DSI filed its initial statement of defense denying that Mr. Gobbetti and the other sellers were entitled to receive the funds deposited in the Escrow Account and further disputing the allegations. Following the constitution of the arbitral tribunal, hearings were held on September 13, 2023 and January 19, 2024, to illustrate and discuss the positions of the parties. The parties also developed their arguments in several rounds of defensive briefs. The final submissions were completed on April 15, 2024, and the final hearing for discussion took place on May 8, 2024. On July 22, 2024, the arbitral tribunal rejected all of Mr. Gobbetti's claims, ruling that the Company had met its contractual obligations under the SPA, particularly regarding the balance of the purchase price. The arbitral tribunal also dismissed Mr. Gobbetti's claims in tort and those pertaining to the FA for lack of jurisdiction and lack of capacity for the Company to be sued. The arbitral tribunal observed that such claims should have been brought against SIRONA Holdings GmbH, which is a party to the FA but not to the SPA, before the Court of Salzburg in Austria based on the jurisdictional clause of the FA.

Mr. Gobbetti appealed the ruling of the arbitral tribunal on December 2, 2024 before the Court of Appeals of Milan, Italy (the "Court of Appeals") arguing that the ruling is null and void. According to Mr. Gobbetti, the arbitral tribunal did not grant him appropriate defense rights under the Italian Civil Code and did not fully address the merits of his claims, despite acknowledging jurisdiction. Mr. Gobbetti asked the Court of Appeals to directly sentence DSI to pay the €7 million, plus damages of €21 million and interest accruing until the time of payment. On April 17, 2025, DSI filed its statement of defense, asking the Court of Appeals to reject Mr. Gobbetti's appeal and confirm the arbitral award in its entirety. A final discussion hearing took place before the Court of Appeals on March 4, 2026, and on May 26, 2026, the Court of Appeals announced its decision in which it rejected Mr. Gobbetti's appeal and ordered him to pay legal costs to DSI based on an official Italian legal tariff. On July 28, 2026, DSI served the decision of the Court of Appeals on Mr. Gobbetti, who appealed to the Supreme Court of Cassation, the highest court of appeal, on October 26, 2026. DSI has until December 7, 2026 to file its response to Mr. Gobbetti's appeal.

Except as noted above, no specific amounts of damages have been alleged in these lawsuits. The Company will continue to incur legal fees in connection with these pending cases, including expenses for the reimbursement of legal fees of present and former officers and directors under indemnification obligations. The expense of continuing to defend such litigation may be significant. The Company intends to defend these lawsuits vigorously, although the Company may elect to settle certain litigation matters, but there can be no assurance that the Company will be successful in any defense or that matters can be settled on terms favorable to the Company. If any of the lawsuits are decided adversely, the Company may be liable for significant damages directly or under its indemnification obligations, which could adversely affect the Company's business, results of operations and cash flows. At this stage, the Company has accrued losses which are deemed probable, along with related insurance receivables, but the Company is unable to assess whether any material loss or adverse effect incremental to the liabilities disclosed above is reasonably possible as a result of these lawsuits or estimate the range of any potential loss.

IRS Examination

The Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") is conducting an examination of the Company's U.S. federal income tax returns for the tax years 2015 and 2016. The Company received a Notice of Proposed Adjustment in April 2023 and a Revenue Agent Report in January 2024 from the IRS examination team proposing an adjustment related to an internal reorganization completed in 2016 with respect to the integration of certain operations of Sirona Dental Systems, Inc. following its acquisition in 2016. Although the proposed adjustment does not result in any additional federal income tax liability for the internal reorganization, if sustained, the proposed adjustment would result in the Company owing additional federal income taxes on a distribution of $451 million related to a stock redemption that occurred after the internal reorganization was completed in 2016. The proposed adjustment, if sustained, would also result in a loss of foreign tax credits carried forward to later tax years. The Company believes that it accurately reported the federal income tax consequences of the internal restructuring and stock redemption in its tax returns and in April 2024, submitted an administrative protest with the IRS Independent Office of Appeals contesting the examination team's proposed adjustments. The IRS examination team provided the Company with a rebuttal to the Company's administrative protest during August 2024 and informed the Company that the dispute would be forwarded to the IRS Independent Office of Appeals.

German Tax Matter

The General Public Prosecutor's Office Frankfurt am Main is investigating a series of intercompany loans implemented in 2016 and 2017 as part of the post-merger integration activities of DENTSPLY International Inc. and Sirona Dental Systems, Inc. The Company is cooperating with the investigation. The Company believes that the transactions at issue complied with all applicable German laws. No charges have been filed against the Company or any individuals. Concurrently with the investigation, the Company is under audit in Germany for fiscal years 2014 through 2021, a portion of which overlaps with the period and subject of investigation. The final resolution of these matters remains uncertain. An unfavorable outcome could have a material adverse effect on the Company's financial condition, results of operations, and cash flows.

The Company intends to vigorously defend its positions and pursue related appeals in the above-described pending matters and believes it is more likely than not that its positions will be sustained, although the Company may elect to settle certain matters. Unless otherwise disclosed herein, the Company has not accrued losses for these matters because the Company does not believe the risk of loss is probable and cannot estimate the range of any potential loss with any reasonable degree of accuracy.

In addition to the matters disclosed above, the Company is, from time to time, subject to a variety of litigation and similar proceedings incidental to its business. These legal matters primarily involve claims for damages arising out of the use of the Company's products and services and claims relating to intellectual property matters including patent infringement, employment matters, tax matters, commercial disputes, competition, sales, and trading practices, personal injury, and insurance coverage. The Company may also become subject to lawsuits as a result of past or future acquisitions or as a result of liabilities retained from, or representations, warranties or indemnities provided in connection with, divested businesses. Some of these lawsuits may include claims for punitive and consequential, as well as compensatory, damages. Except as otherwise noted, the Company generally cannot predict what the eventual outcome of the above-described pending matters will be, what the timing of the ultimate resolution of these matters will be, or what the eventual loss, fines or penalties related to each pending matter may be. Based upon the Company's experience, current information, and applicable law, it does not believe that these proceedings and claims will have a material adverse effect on its consolidated results of operations, financial position, or liquidity. However, in the event of unexpected further developments, it is possible that the ultimate resolution of these matters, or other similar matters, if unfavorable, may be materially adverse to the Company's business, financial condition, results of operations, or liquidity.

While the Company maintains general, product, property, workers' compensation, automobile, cargo, aviation, crime, fiduciary, cyber, and directors' and officers' liability insurance up to certain limits that cover certain of these claims, this insurance may be insufficient or unavailable to cover such losses. In addition, while the Company believes it is entitled to indemnification from third parties for some of these claims, these rights may also be insufficient or unavailable to cover such losses.

Commitments

Purchase Commitments

The Company has certain non-cancelable future commitments primarily related to long-term supply contracts for key components and raw materials and cloud-services agreements supporting the Company's digital platform. At September 30, 2026, non-cancelable purchase commitments were as follows:

(in millions)
2026	$ 57
2027	95
2028	44
2029	47
2030	41
Thereafter	24
Total	$ 308

The above information should be read in conjunction with Part II, Item 7 "Contractual Obligations" and Part II, Item 8, Note 21, Commitments and Contingencies, in the 2025 Form 10-K.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

As of September 30, 2026, the Company had no material off-balance sheet arrangements that have, or are reasonably likely to have, a current or future material effect on the Company's consolidated financial condition, results of operations, liquidity, capital expenditures or capital resources other than certain items disclosed in the sections above.

Indemnification

In the normal course of business to facilitate sales of the Company's products and services, the Company indemnifies certain parties, including customers, vendors, lessors, services providers, and others, with respect to certain matters, including, but not limited to, services to be provided by or for the Company, and intellectual property infringement claims made by third parties. In addition, the Company has entered into indemnification agreements with its current and former directors and officers that will require the Company, among other things, to indemnify them against certain liabilities that may arise by reason of their status or service as directors or officers. Several of these agreements limit the time within which an indemnification claim can be made and the amount of the claim.

It is not possible to make a reasonable estimate of the maximum potential amount of indemnification under these indemnification agreements due to the unique facts and circumstances involved in the various matters which give rise to indemnification claims and the particular terms of each agreement. However, to the extent that valid indemnification claims arise in the future, future payments by the Company could be significant and could have a material adverse effect on the Company's results of operations or cash flows in a particular period.

NOTE 15 – SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

In October 2026, the Company settled and then re-established its Swiss franc-denominated net investment hedge portfolio to continue hedging its exposure to changes in the U.S. dollar value of its Swiss franc-denominated net assets. The new Swiss franc-denominated net investment hedges have a total notional value of $1.8 billion. The Company paid a net amount of approximately $12 million to settle the existing portfolio. The instruments are designated as hedges of the Company's Swiss franc-denominated net assets.

The impact of global economic conditions

Various headwinds are expected to weigh on global growth for the remainder of 2026, due in large part to increasing uncertainties related to global trade policies and inflation. Changes in trade policy, supply chain constraints, higher energy costs, labor shortages, and geopolitical tensions have all contributed to the risk of higher inflation and general economic uncertainty across the industry and the regions in which the Company operates.

The challenging macroeconomic conditions have impacted consumer confidence, the ability and willingness of clinicians to obtain financing to purchase equipment, and consumer discretionary spending for elective procedures, leading to adverse impacts on the Company's results of operations, particularly in the United States. The Company has taken actions to attempt to mitigate the effects of challenging macroeconomic conditions and may take further actions in the future.

Recent tariff policies

As disclosed in Part I, Item 1A, "Risk Factors," of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2025 (the "2025 Form 10-K"), the Company's business is subject to risks related to, among other factors, tariffs and other trade protection measures put in place by the United States and other countries. The U.S. government has implemented and could further implement various tariffs on the importation of certain goods from certain countries, a number of which are or may be applicable to the Company's supply chain, operations, and sales. Tariffs enacted or proposed by the Trump Administration, together with retaliatory tariffs imposed by other countries, could make it significantly more difficult or costly for the Company to import certain products or materials to the United States, or export products or materials from the United States to other countries. Further, these tariffs remain subject to evolving modifications and court challenges. Currently, a small portion of the products, materials, and components used in our products are imported from China, and a significant number of dental technology and equipment products that we sell in the United States are manufactured in Europe. Europe is also a significant market for sales of our products, including certain consumable products made in the United States, while sales in China represent less than 5% of the Company's global sales on an annual basis. The Company received approximately $44 million of refunds in the second quarter of 2026 and approximately $3 million of refunds in the third quarter of 2026 for its prior payment of U.S. tariffs imposed under the International Emergency Economic Powers Act on goods imported into the United States following legal and regulatory developments affecting the administration of those tariffs. While these refunds favorably impacted the Company's results of operations and cash flows during the second and third quarters of 2026 and the nine months ended September 30, 2026, the future effect of tariffs and trade policies on the Company's business remains uncertain. We continue to monitor and evaluate the ongoing and potential impacts on our supply chain, costs, net sales, and profitability of the tariffs, changes in trade policy, whether implemented or proposed, and court rulings on the legality of certain tariffs. We have executed actions and continue to evaluate additional strategies to mitigate such impacts, including competitive pricing strategies to offset tariffs and evaluating alternative sourcing options to minimize products sourced from high tariff rate countries, both for existing products and to support new product development. It is difficult to predict with reasonable certainty the impact on our results of operations and customers' demand for our products from incremental tariffs, changes in trade policy, and related court rulings. For additional information, see Part I, Item 1A, "Risk Factors" in our 2025 Form 10-K.

The impact of geopolitical conflicts

Geopolitical conflicts are expected to continue to shape market dynamics and pose general threats to financial stability in affected regions, including ongoing tensions from the conflicts in the Middle East and the Russia-Ukraine conflict. Overall, the Company's operations in the Middle East, Russia, and Ukraine have not been materially impacted by these conflicts.

Geopolitical conditions in the Middle East have adversely impacted our business, including by contributing to lower revenue in certain markets in the region. The Company's operations have not been materially impacted by these geopolitical conditions, but such conditions may result in future disruptions to our operations. We continue to monitor these developments and take actions to mitigate their impact on our operations.

The Company's operations in Israel consist of two manufacturing facilities for implants products, with one site in northern Israel and one site in southern Israel, both of which remain open and continue to operate normally. For the nine months ended September 30, 2026, net sales of products produced at these sites comprised approximately 3% of our consolidated net sales and approximately 15% of the net sales of the Orthodontic and Implant Solutions segment. Net assets within Israel totaled $130 million as of September 30, 2026, consisting primarily of acquired technology, property, plant and equipment, inventory, and cash associated with our operations in the country.

In February 2022, because of the invasion of Ukraine by Russia, the United States, the European Union, and certain other countries imposed economic sanctions on certain Russian financial institutions and businesses and export controls on the export of certain products to Russia. Due to the medical nature of our products, the current sanctions and export controls have not materially restricted our ability to continue selling many of our products to customers located in Russia. For the nine months ended September 30, 2026, net sales in Russia and Ukraine were approximately 3% of our consolidated net sales, and net assets in these countries were $93 million as of September 30, 2026. These net assets include $51 million of cash and cash equivalents held within Russia as of September 30, 2026, as well as inventory and trade accounts receivable. Due to currency control measures imposed by the Russian government, which include restrictions on the ability of companies to repatriate or otherwise remit cash from their Russian-based operations to locations outside of Russia, we continue to be limited in our ability to transfer this cash balance out of Russia without incurring substantial costs. Additionally, beginning in September 2024, as a result of further restrictions by European financial institutions on receiving payments from Russia, our capacity to receive intercompany payments for the delivery of our products into Russia has been partially reduced, which further limits our ability to use cash received from sales in Russia for our general purposes.

Distribution arrangements

Following a strategic shift in inventory management in partnership with distributors, changes in the Company's distribution model, including a reduced emphasis on distributor-held inventory, will likely increase variability in ordering patterns and contribute to fluctuations in net sales and operating income.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS, THREE AND NINE MONTHS ENDED SEPTEMBER 30, 2026 COMPARED TO THREE AND NINE MONTHS ENDED SEPTEMBER 30, 2025

Net Sales

The Company presents net sales comparing the current-year periods to the prior-year periods. In addition, the Company also presents changes in net sales on a constant currency basis, which is a Non-GAAP measure. The Company defines "constant currency" as the reported net sales adjusted for the impact of foreign currency changes, which is calculated by translating current period net sales using the comparable prior period's currency exchange rates.

Constant currency is an important internal measure for the Company, and its senior management receives a monthly analysis of operating results that includes constant currency. The performance of the Company is measured on this metric along with other performance metrics.

The Company discloses changes in constant currency to allow investors to evaluate the performance of the Company's operations exclusive of the impact of foreign currency changes that may impact the comparability of results from period to period and may not be indicative of past or future performance of the normal operations of the Company. The Company believes that this supplemental information is helpful in understanding underlying net sales trends. The Company's measure of constant currency may differ from those used by other companies and should not be considered in isolation from, or as a substitute for, measures of financial performance prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("US GAAP").

The Company's geographic regions for reporting net sales consist of countries in (i) North and South America ("Americas"), (ii) Europe, the Middle East, and Africa ("EMEA"), and (iii) Asia Pacific ("APAC"). Prior period net sales amounts have been recast to conform to the current period presentation, reflecting a shift to a regional geographic presentation, which aligns with how the Company manages commercial activities and reports net sales internally. The change in regional geographic presentation was effective as of January 1, 2026. This change did not impact the Company's consolidated financial statements.

Total net sales

The net sales decrease on a constant currency basis for the three months ended September 30, 2026 was driven by lower volumes of OIS products in all regions, primarily implant products and the absence of the Byte business, lower volumes of CTS products in the Americas following a strategic shift in inventory management in partnership with distributors, and lower volumes of endodontic products in EMEA. The decrease was partially offset by higher volumes of Wellspect products.

The net sales decrease on a constant currency basis for the nine months ended September 30, 2026 was driven by lower volumes of EDS and OIS products, the absence of the Byte business, and lower volumes of CTS products in the Americas and EMEA. partnership with distributors. The decrease was partially offset by higher volumes of Wellspect products.

Connected Technology Solutions

The net sales decrease on a constant currency basis for the three months ended September 30, 2026 was driven by lower volumes of CAD/CAM products in the Americas. The decrease was partially offset by higher volumes of CAD/CAM products in APAC. CAD/CAM products held by distributors in the three months ended September 30, 2026 decreased approximately $9 million from June 30, 2026, compared to an increase of approximately $20 million in the three months ended September 30, 2025 from June 30, 2025. Imaging products held by distributors in the three months ended September 30, 2026 decreased approximately $3 million from June 30, 2026, compared to a decrease of approximately $1 million in the three months ended September 30, 2025 from June 30, 2025.

Imaging products held by distributors in the nine months ended September 30, 2026 decreased approximately $10 million from December 31, 2025 compared to no change in the nine months ended September 30, 2025 compared to December 31, 2024.

Distributor inventory levels for both CAD/CAM and imaging products at September 30, 2026 remain below historical averages following a strategic shift in inventory management in partnership with distributors.

Essential Dental Solutions

The net sales decrease on a constant currency basis for the three months ended September 30, 2026 was driven by lower volumes of endodontics products in EMEA and unfavorable pricing, partially offset by higher volumes of endodontics products in the Americas. The decrease in volumes in EMEA was, in part, a result of volumes of products sold by distributors to retail customers exceeding volumes of products sold to distributors. We are unable to quantify the impact to net sales of the decrease in volumes in EMEA for the three months ended September 30, 2026. Changes in inventory levels held by EMEA distributors are expected to impact the amount and timing of net sales in future periods.

Provision for income taxes

The effective tax rates for the three months ended September 30, 2026 and 2025 were 112.4% and (86.5%), respectively. The effective tax rates for the nine months ended September 30, 2026 and 2025 were 58.3% and (33.6%), respectively. The increase in the effective tax rate for both the three and nine month periods is primarily driven by increases in valuation allowances on certain deferred tax assets in the United States, Germany, Switzerland, and Luxembourg, the loss of certain U.S. tax benefits, and limitations on the utilization of foreign tax credits, as well as the impact of prior-year impairments and associated valuation allowance changes.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND ESTIMATES

There were no material changes to the critical accounting policies and estimates as disclosed in the 2025 Form 10-K, except as follows:

Indefinite-Lived Intangible Assets

Indefinite-lived intangible assets consist of trade names, trademarks, and in-process R&D. Indefinite-lived intangible assets are tested for impairment annually at April 1 or more frequently if events or circumstances indicate that the carrying value may be impaired, or if a decision is made to sell, discontinue, or divest a business. Judgment is involved in determining if an indicator of impairment has occurred during the year. Such indicators may include a decline in expected cash flows, unanticipated competition, increased interest rates, or slower growth rates, among others.

Impairment Test Results

For the three months ended September 30, 2026, the Company considered qualitative and quantitative factors to determine whether any events or changes in circumstances had resulted in indicators of impairment of goodwill or indefinite-lived intangible assets. Due to the lower-than-expected results for the product lines associated with various intangible assets, review of the indefinite-lived intangible assets using a consistent methodology as that which was used for the annual test, indicated a decline in fair value as of September 30, 2026 due to lower volumes for the Company’s equipment and implant products. As a result, the Company recorded indefinite-lived intangible asset pre-tax impairment charges of $2 million and $1 million for the Orthodontic and Implant Solutions and Essential Dental Solutions segments, respectively, for the three months ended September 30, 2026.

For further information see Note 13, Goodwill and Intangible Assets, in the Notes to Unaudited Interim Consolidated Financial Statements in Part I, Item 1 of this Form 10-Q.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

	Nine Months Ended September 30,
(in millions)	2026	2025	$ Change
Cash provided by (used in):
Operating activities	$ 171	$ 134	$ 37
Investing activities	(135)	(87)	(48)
Financing activities	(158)	19	(177)
Effect of exchange rate changes on cash and cash equivalents	(9)	25	(34)
Net (decrease) increase in cash and cash equivalents	$ (131)	$ 91	$ (222)

Cash provided by operating activities increased compared to the nine months ended September 30, 2025, driven by higher net income, which included $47 million related to tariff refunds received from the U.S. government and lower accounts receivable. At September 30, 2026, the number of days for sales outstanding in accounts receivable increased by 2 days to 64 days as compared to 62 days at December 31, 2025, and the number of days of sales in inventory increased by 21 days to 152 days at September 30, 2026 as compared to 131 days at December 31, 2025.

Cash used in investing activities increased compared to the nine months ended September 30, 2025, primarily driven by higher capital expenditures. The Company estimates capital expenditures to be in the range of approximately $165 million to $185 million for the full year 2026 and expects these investments to include expenditures for supply chain equipment upgrades and capacity expansion to support product innovation, DS Core enhancements, and the global Enterprise Resource Planning system implementation.

Cash used in financing activities increased compared to the nine months ended September 30, 2025 as the prior-year period included cash inflows provided by the issuance of $550 million of long-term borrowings, a portion of which was used to repay the 364-day bridge loan and other short-term borrowings. The increase is also driven by repayments on long-term borrowings and share repurchases, partially offset by lower dividends paid.

On November 7, 2023, the Board of Directors approved an increase to the authorized share repurchase program of $1.0 billion. At September 30, 2026, $1.2 billion of authorization remains available for future share repurchases. For the three and nine months ended September 30, 2026, the Company repurchased approximately 1.2 million and 2.5 million outstanding shares of common stock through open market purchases at a cost of approximately $13 million and $25 million. Additional share repurchases, if any, may be made through open market purchases, Rule 10b5-1 plans, accelerated share repurchases, privately negotiated transactions, or other transactions in such amounts and at such times as the Company considers appropriate based upon prevailing market and business conditions and other factors.

On February 23, 2026, the Company’s Board of Directors eliminated the declaration of quarterly dividends on the Company’s common stock starting in the quarter ending March 31, 2026.

At September 30, 2026, the Company had $503 million of borrowings available under lines of credit, including lines available under its short-term arrangements and revolving credit facility. The Company’s borrowing capacity includes a $700 million multi-currency credit facility which expires in May 2028. The Company also has access to an aggregate $700 million under a U.S. dollar commercial paper facility. The $700 million revolver serves as a back-up to the commercial paper facility. Thus the total available credit under the commercial paper facility and the multi-currency revolving credit facility in the aggregate is $700 million. The Company had $215 million in outstanding borrowings under the commercial paper facility at September 30, 2026, resulting in $485 million remaining available under the revolving credit and commercial paper facilities. The Company also has access to $18 million in uncommitted short-term financing under lines of credit from various financial institutions, the availability of which is reduced by other short-term borrowings. The lines of credit have no major restrictions and are provided under demand notes between the Company and the lending institutions. At September 30, 2026, the Company had less than $1 million outstanding under short-term borrowing arrangements.

The Company's revolving credit facility and senior notes contain certain covenants relating to the Company's operations and financial condition. As of September 30, 2026, the Company entered into an amendment to its credit agreement, which is intended to provide the Company with additional flexibility to maintain compliance with its debt covenants. At September 30, 2026, the Company was in compliance with these covenants, as amended. See Note 12, Financing Arrangements, in the Notes to the Unaudited Interim Consolidated Financial Statements in Part I, Item 1 of this Form 10-Q for additional information.

The Company expects on an ongoing basis to be able to finance operating cash requirements, capital expenditures, and debt service from the current cash, cash equivalents, cash flows from operations and amounts available under its existing borrowing facilities.

The cash held by foreign subsidiaries for permanent reinvestment is generally used to finance the subsidiaries' operating activities and future foreign investments. The Company has the ability to repatriate cash to the United States, which could result in an adjustment to the tax liability for foreign withholding taxes, foreign and/or U.S. state income taxes, and the impact of foreign currency movements. At September 30, 2026, management believed that sufficient liquidity was available in the United States and expects this to continue for the next twelve months. The Company has repatriated and expects to continue repatriating certain funds from its non-U.S. subsidiaries that are not needed to finance local operations. Repatriation activities both performed and contemplated to date have not resulted in, and are not expected to result in, any significant incremental tax liability to the Company.

The Company continues to review its debt portfolio and may refinance additional debt or add debt in the near term based on strategic capital management. The Company believes there is sufficient liquidity available for the next twelve months.

Restructuring Plans

On February 24, 2026, the Company's Board of Directors approved a new restructuring plan (the "2026 Plan") to improve operational performance and drive stockholder value creation. As of September 30, 2026, the Company has incurred $54 million in non-recurring restructuring charges and paid out approximately $26 million under the 2026 Plan since its inception, primarily related to employee severance payments, benefits, and other transition costs. In total, the Company expects to incur non-recurring charges in the approximate range of $60 million to $65 million related to the 2026 Plan, the majority of which will be expensed and paid in cash in 2026 and 2027. The 2026 Plan is anticipated to result in approximately $100 million in annualized cost savings. The Company intends to reinvest a portion of the anticipated savings in targeted return-to-growth initiatives, including investments in accelerated innovation, clinical education, and sales team education focused on connected dentistry.

NEW ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

There have been no material changes from the information provided in Part II, Item 7A, "Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk," in our 2025 Form 10-K.

Item 4 – Controls and Procedures

Conclusion Regarding the Effectiveness of Disclosure Controls and Procedures

The Company's management, with the participation of the Company's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, evaluated the effectiveness of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended) as of the end of the period covered by this report. Based on that evaluation, the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer concluded that the Company's disclosure controls and procedures, as of the end of the period covered by this report, were effective to provide reasonable assurance that the information required to be disclosed by the Company in reports filed or submitted under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, is recorded, processed, summarized, and reported within the time periods specified in the SEC's rules and forms and that it is accumulated and communicated to management, including the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, as appropriate to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.

Changes in Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

The Company has committed to a multi-year project to implement a new ERP system using a global platform. The implementation is underway and is expected to continue to occur in phases over the next several years. In connection with the ERP implementation, we are updating and will continue to update our internal control over financial reporting, as necessary, to accommodate modifications to our business processes and accounting procedures.

Except with respect to the continued implementation of the new ERP and consolidations systems, there have been no changes in our internal control over financial reporting during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2026 that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting. We will continue to evaluate any further changes that could materially affect, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting over the course of the implementation of the new ERP system and other related systems.

PART II – OTHER INFORMATION

Item 1 – Legal Proceedings

During the three months ended September 30, 2026, the Company had the following activity with respect to the share repurchase program:
